

MSA is hiring Private Music Lesson Instructors to begin in September for the school year (10-month commitment). This is a part-time, in-person role with hourly pay. We're looking for instructors for voice, piano, and drums for weekday afternoons/evenings and/or Saturdays to teach 30 min private lessons.

Job Title: Private Music Lesson Teacher (Part-Time)

Start Date: September

Commitment: 10-month school year commitment

Work Model: In-person

Compensation: Hourly (negotiable)

Availability: Later afternoons to early evenings on weekdays and/or Saturdays

MSA is seeking qualified teachers to provide private music lessons to students during the school year. Applicants should be experienced, professional, and comfortable working with students in a structured, supportive environment.

We are currently hiring for:

- Voice
- Piano
- Drums

Qualifications

- Experience teaching private music lessons (instrument/voice-specific experience preferred)
- Professional communication and reliability
- Commitment to student safety, respectful instruction, and confidentiality

MSA is a nonprofit arts organization.